One of us might spend less time hanging out with our friends. One in four of us will have a stroke in our lifetime which can affect our social networks. However, most strokes are easily prevented with simple steps. When it comes to stroke, #DontBeTheOne.

Learn more about risks and prevention at WorldStrokeCampaign.org